

Draft:Non-Abrahamic religion

Submission declined on 14 November 2019 by Utopes (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/User:Utopes>) (talk).

Neologisms are not considered suitable for Wikipedia unless they receive substantial use and press coverage; this requires strong evidence in independent, reliable, published sources. Links to sites specifically intended to promote the neologism itself do not establish its notability.

- If you would like to continue working on the submission, click on the "Edit" tab at the top of the window.
- If you have not resolved the issues listed above, your draft will be declined again and potentially deleted.

Where to get help

- If you need help editing or submitting your draft, please ask us a question (https://en.wikipedia.org/w/index.php?title=Wikipedia:WikiProject_Articles_for_creation/Help_desk&action=edit§ion=new&nosummary=1&preload=Template:AFC_submission/draft/HD_preload&preloadparams%5B%5D=Draft:Non-Abrahamic_religion) at the AfC Help Desk or get live help from experienced editors. These venues are only for help with editing and the submission process, not to get reviews.
- If you need feedback on your draft, or if the review is taking a lot of time, you can try asking for help on the talk page of a relevant WikiProject. Some WikiProjects are more active than others so a speedy reply is not guaranteed.

- 📢 Comment: The term "Non-Abrahamic religion" does not appear to be a commonly used term to describe the topic. At least, the sources don't show that it is a commonly used phrase to describe a religion that does not stem from Judaism. Utopes (talk) 06:33, 14 November 2019 (UTC)

A Non-Abrahamic religion ia a religion which doesn't claims descent from Judaism of the ancient Israelites and the worship of the God of Abraham.^{[1][2][3]} As of 2005, it was estimated that 54% (3.6 billion people) of the world's population are adherents of Abrahamic religions, along with 46% (2.8 billion people) of the world's population being adherents of either Non-Abrahamic religions or no religion at all^{[4][5]}
